

Adult Religious Education Courses — Fall 2009 at the Marian Center

Main Instructor: Theresa Kashin, M.A. Theology

Workbooks may be borrowed or purchased at the beginning of each course.

1. Introduction to the Bible: “Scriptures from Scratch”

“Overview of the Bible” is the first unit in the “Scriptures from Scratch” series, which includes three more units (Overview of the Old Testament, Overview of the New Testament, Overview of the Gospels). This series is for beginning students of the Bible. You will find yourself among other folks with minimal knowledge of the Bible. Videos, workbook (one workbook covers all four units), and small group discussion will be our basic tools of study.

Two units will be available Fall 2009, both held Wednesdays 7:30-9pm:

“Overview of the Bible” will be held September 16, 23, 30, and October 7.

“Overview of the Old Testament” will be held October 21, 28, November 4 and 11.

2. Bible Study and Faith Sharing Program: “Jesus and The Gospels”

“Jesus and The Gospels” is one in a series of Bible Studies by Paulist Press.

Class size is limited to ten (10) persons because participation is key.

This course will be held Tuesdays 7:30-9pm September 29-November 17.

3. Bible Study with Biblical Scholars: “Infancy Narratives” with Raymond Brown

This series began a year ago with “Paul” with Luke Timothy Johnson, followed by “Resurrection Narratives” with Raymond Brown. We are pleased to continue this series for advanced students of the Bible.

One chapter of the textbook must be read prior to each class. The reading level is difficult. Class time will be used to “unpack” the chapter using lecture and discussion.

This course will be held Thursdays 7-8:30pm September 17-November 19.

4. October Short Course: “The Rosary”

The four Mondays of October (5,12,19,26), we will study, share stories about our experience of the rosary, and pray the rosary (a different mystery each Monday).

The Morning Rosary Class will be held 10-11am, with co-teacher Judy Campbell.

The Evening Rosary Class will be held 7-8pm, with co-teacher Mary Underkofler.
